

Jobready2dey "$1 Wednesdays"

Terms and Conditions

The terms and conditions listed herein are for the education of our potential clients and the protection of Jobready2dey. These terms and conditions will be strictly adhered to (unless extreme circumstances warrant changes; all subject to Jobready2dey's discretion and approval) so all clients will get the most out of this awesome promotion.

The Promotion

$1 Wednesdays will be recognized every Wednesday for a limited time. Jobready2dey has the right, without notice, to terminate this promotion at anytime, or deny anyone participation due to unethical business practices. These practices include but are not limited to other resume writers or services using this promotion to have their client resumes done for a cheap price. If the promotion is terminated, all resumes or cover letters that were purchased before the time of termination will be honored.

Under this promotion, clients will receive a revised resume, cover letter, interview prep, or career counseling just for $1. In order to secure this price, clients must make their purchase between 5pm Tuesday and 11:59pm Wednesday (Eastern Standard Time) of each week. If promotional packages sell out, the promotion for that package will end early. According to where a client lives, the promotion will begin and end at the equivalent time per their time zone. Payment must be received between these times for the promotion to apply. All orders for resumes and cover letters outside of this period will be priced at the normal rate listed on www.jobready2dey.com. There will be no holding of spots until payment can be made! Please also note that this promotion does not include Federal Resumes.

$1 will not cover the cost of a resume and cover letter as a package. Each resume or cover letter under this promotion will cost $1 each. This applies to other promotional items as well. If you need additional resumes or cover letters, each one will cost an additional dollar. Please make sure you pay for the amount of resumes or cover letters you desire during the promotional period. Purchases will not be revisited outside of the promotional period to get this rate. There are limits to the promotional items! Please see the site for details.

Promotional items can be purchased for another party. However, once the client receiving services is finalized, services cannot be transferred to another client. Clients receiving services must be finalized immediately after purchase! Before work can begin, a service agreement must be signed. This is for the protection of the client and Jobready2dey.

All services under this promotion will be performed remotely. If you are in the Charlotte, NC area and wish for an in person consultation, a $35 fee will apply. This will cover (1) 1 hour consultation.

Payment

Payments will be accepted via credit card, debit card, or PayPal. Jobready2dey currently uses PayPal as its payment processor for all payment types. Please be advised that PayPal currently charges 2.9% + $0.30 in fees for each transaction. For example, clients must pay $1.34 in order for Jobready2dey to receive $1 for any service. Please verify this with the PayPal fee calculator here <https://urlzs.com/rWu8v>.

Other allowed quantities have been added with fees already calculated in case clients desire to purchase more resumes or cover letters. No other fees will be required other than those aforementioned.

Resume and Cover Letter format

All resumes and cover letters will be completed using a format acceptable in the United States of America. Jobready2dey does not recommend anyone who lives in an area that follows guidelines opposite to those we use to utilize this service.

Delivery Times

Please allow up to 15 business days for resumes or cover letters to be completed under this promotion. For large orders an extra 3 business days may be needed. Jobready2dey will advise if a time extension is needed. After your resume draft is complete, it will be sent over to you in PDF format to advise of any changes. Clients will be allowed 1 revision to resolve any issues (if needed). After the resume is ready, your final document will be sent over in Word format. Interview prep and career counseling services will be scheduled between the client and Jobready2dey, and completed on the scheduled day and time.

Important Information

Payments will be processed through www.jobready2dey.com, and you will only be contacted by an email address @jobready2dey.com. Please be careful of scammers who will act as a company representative to steal your money. If you suspect fraud, please contact us immediately so we can investigate.

Before services are rendered, a service agreement must be signed and returned to Jobready2dey. Refusal to sign an agreement does not eliminate the contractual agreement between a client and Jobready2dey. Submitting payment for any service solidifies the accepting of these terms and conditions.

Once services are purchased, Jobready2dey will reach out via email to the client to begin the process. Please be sure your PayPal email address is correct. If not please contact jobready2dey at admin@jobready2dey.com to advise of the correct email for correspondence.

Refund Policy

Please note that there will be absolutely no refunds! Also note if a client believes he/she is more knowledgeable than their resume writer or counselor and can't be assisted, is disrespectful, or unresponsive to communications, Jobready2dey reserves the right to discontinue services without obligation to refund the purchase price.

DO NOT PROCEED TO SIGN AN AGREEMENT, OR PAY FOR SERVICES IF YOU DO NOT AGREE TO THESE TERMS AND CONDITIONS!
